ADDITIONAL TERMS FOR CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The defendant shall make installment payments towards any financial obligation through the Bureau of Prisons' (BOP) Inmate Financial Responsibility Plan (IFRP). Pursuant to the IFRP, the BOP may establish a payment plan by evaluating the defendant's six-month deposit history and subtracting an amount determined by the BOP to be used to maintain contact with family and friends, send mail, and buy necessary commissary items. That subtracted amount to be used to maintain contact with family and friends, send mail, and buy necessary commissary items shall not be determined to be less than $75.00 per month. In other words, installment payments should permit at least $75.00 to be used to maintain contact with family and friends, send mail, and buy necessary commissary items each month. The remaining balance may be used to determine a repayment schedule. BOP staff shall help the defendant develop a financial plan and shall monitor his progress in meeting his financial obligation.
